UNBC is the only primarily undergraduate university to be ranked among the top three universities in Canada for the past 10 years by Maclean's Magazine - here are a few reasons why:

- Small campus, vibrant community: with a faculty to student ratio of 1:9 and an average first-year class size of 85, you will not feel lost in the crowd.
- Beautiful setting: surrounded by lush natural landscapes, take advantage of 50 km of forested hiking trails, 5 minutes from UNBC on-campus housing.
- Big opportunities: engage in academic research or field schools as early as your 2nd year of study, or get involved in a student-led organization - how will you make your mark?

Join SchoolFinder and UNBC's student recruitment team for a 1-hour webinar on UNBC's programs, admission requirements, scholarship opportunities, and student life.

Experience UNBC, a university like no other.
